

A low bar on a gym rack is centered in the frame, set against a background of a cloudy sky. The bar is a horizontal metal rod with red and black markings, supported by two vertical metal posts. The text 'RAISING THE BAR' is overlaid on the image in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The word 'RAISING' is the largest, 'THE' is smaller and centered below it, and 'BAR' is the same size as 'RAISING' and centered below 'THE'.

RAISING THE BAR

A church wide commitment campaign to transform the culture of our church family

RAISING THE BAR

Weekly Memory Verse

“Jesus said to him, You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

– Matthew 22:37-39

RAISING THE BAR

Intentional Living

Intention – purpose, attitude, meaning or significance

“I believe that no matter what ‘plot’ each of our stories may follow, deep down we all want one thing: for our lives to matter.”

– John Maxwell

RAISING THE BAR

Intentional Living

- *There are 2 types of people:
People who let life lead them, and people who lead their life.*
- Many of us believe that while we make poor decisions or no decisions at all we will somehow magically or supernaturally arrive at God's best for our life.

RAISING THE BAR

Intentional Living

Ephesians 5:15,16 NKJV, NIV, AMP

Greek word for redeem is exagorazo, ex from or out of, agorazo meaning to purchase

Greek word for time is kairos.

RAISING THE BAR

Intentional Living

If nothing changes, then nothing changes.

Proverbs 3:1